

Mini-symposium Havana Case

Prof. Dr. Arch. Jorge Peña Díaz
Arch. Oliesky Fabre del Castillo
Prof. Dr. Arch. Abel Tablada de la Torre

Types and characteristics of the UA in your country

1990's

Disarray in Urban Food System: Food Insecurity still in place
Urban Agriculture as response but also Lab for the future

1990's

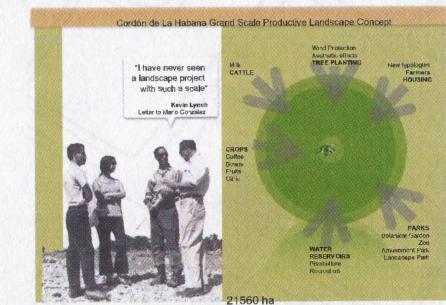

1960's

Source of Global Inspiration

Previous attempts to cope with food insecurity through planning

1960's

Previous attempts to cope with food insecurity through planning

1990's

1990's

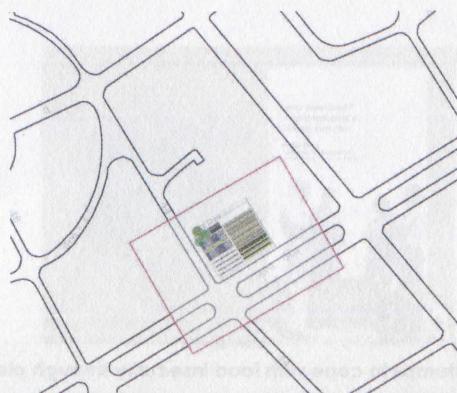

1990's

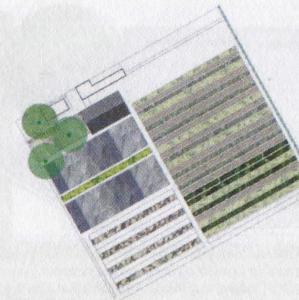

1990's

1990's

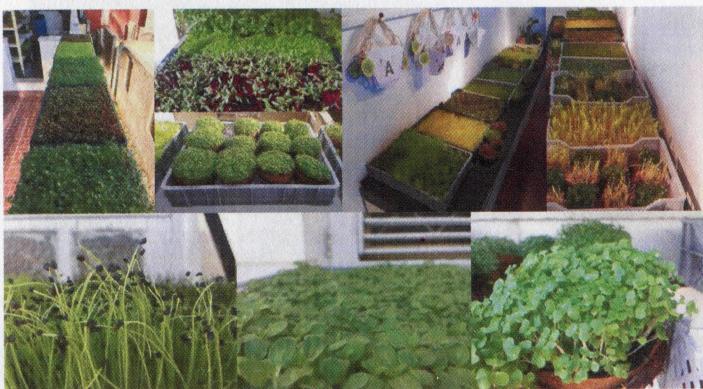

1990's

1990's

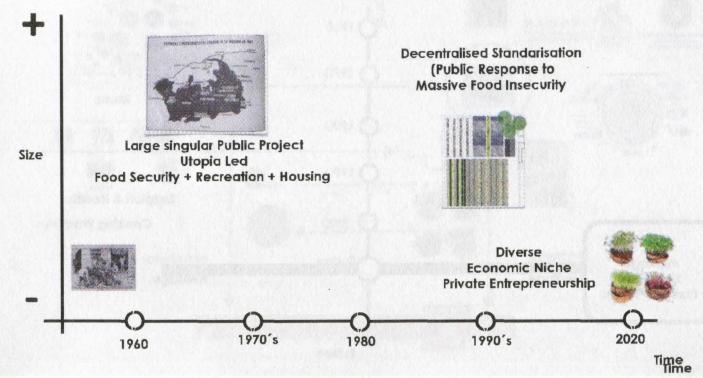

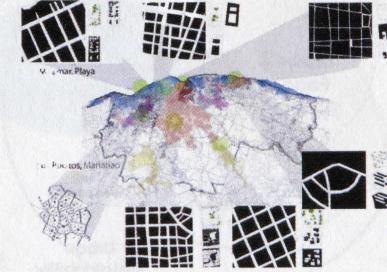

1990's

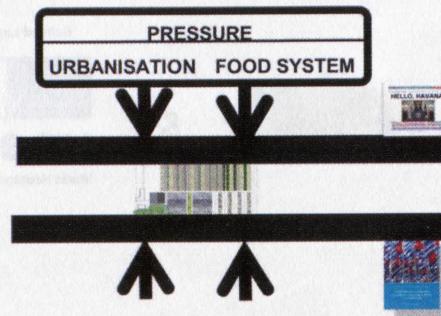

Adaptation to urban morphotopologies

Adaptation to urban socio-economic situations

Today: Contestation

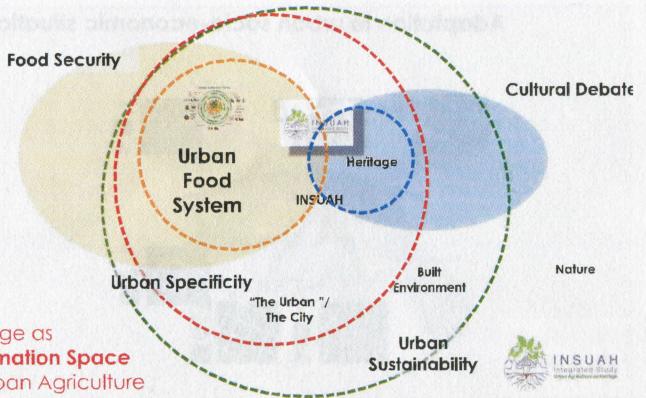

Heritage aspect of the Urban Food System and UA

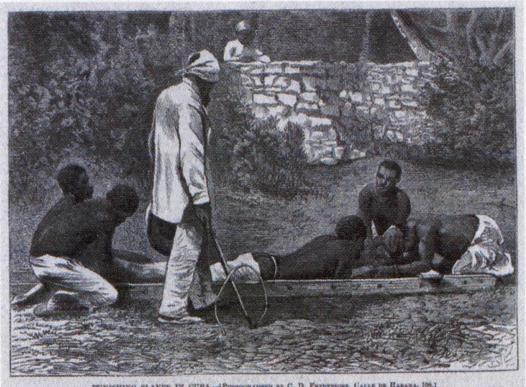

MUSIC

Culinary

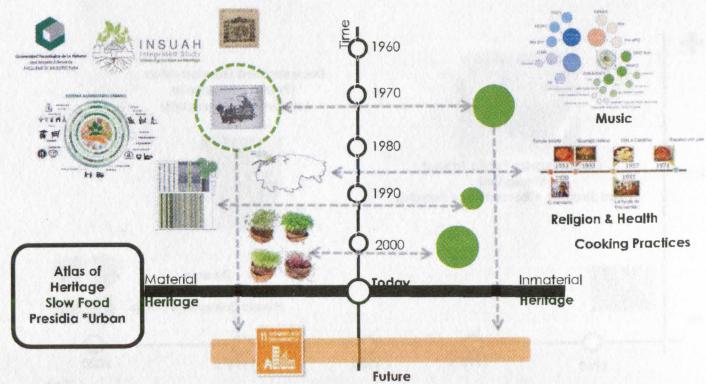

Urban Food System: Urban Agriculture as part of a larger system

Engagement with established concepts

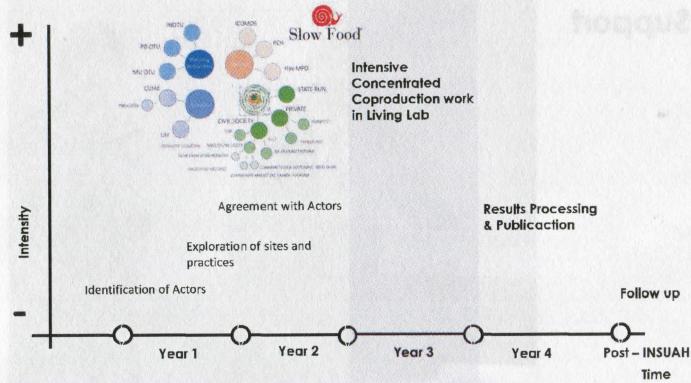

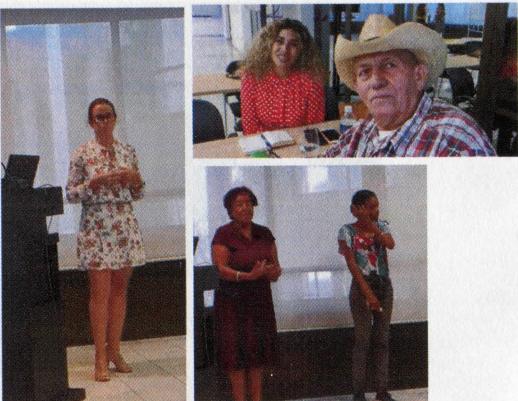

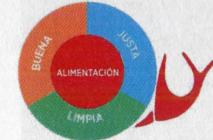

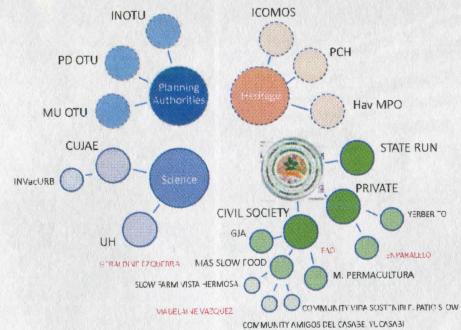

&

Living lab approach for the UA/UAH

Living lab approach for the UA/UAH

Slow Food Movement Principles Declaration (Extracts)

To recover, document and reincorporate local memory and traditional knowledge related to world of food

Atlas of Heritage Slow Food Presidia *Urban

Living Lab: INTERPRETATION SPACE OF URBAN AGRICULTURE AS HERITAGE STUDENT PROJECT

Learning from Tohyo

Barefoot

Sacred

Production

Materiality

Sacred

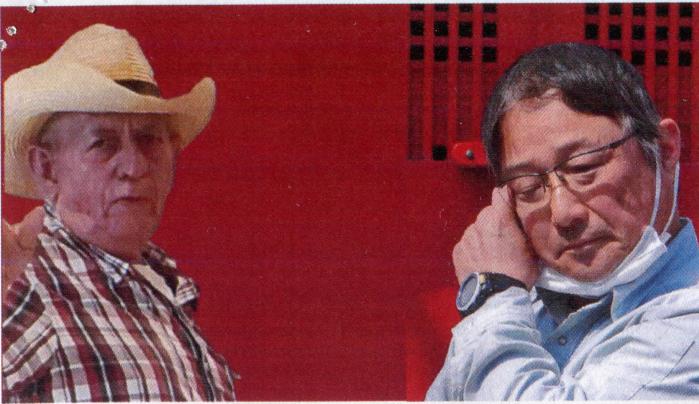

Support

People

Policy Sphere: Key space of contestation:

1. Inheritance / younger generations
2. Demarcation of areas
3. Labeling (organic, identity, etc...)
4. Technology

